Election/Restrictions

Claims in the application are 1-28.

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I. Claims 1-21, drawn to a base material and implant material, classified in class 435, subclass 174.

II. Claims 22-24, drawn to an implant material production method, classified in class 435, subclass 395.

III. Claims 25-27, drawn to an implant production method, classified in class 424, subclass 93.7.

IV. Claim 28, drawn to an implant production method, classified in class 424, subclass 423.

The inventions are independent or distinct, each from the other because:

Inventions I and II-IV are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the base material and implant material of invention I can be produced by a method materially different from the methods required by inventions II-IV. For example, the base material and implant material can be produced without differentiating mesenchymal stem cells and using a preliminary carrier as required by the methods of inventions II and III, and without making an artificial bone material and subsequently preparing a cell-holding carrier as required by the method of invention IV.

The methods of inventions II-IV are each different methods requiring different steps and producing a different end product such that each method can be performed and used without the invention of any other method.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Searching and examining inventions I-IV together will be a serious burden due to the scope of different searches required and different considerations relating to prior art required for each invention not required by any other of the inventions.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
